BATTLING THE BLAZE

A TECHNICAL glitch may have been the cause of a major blaze which tore through Didcot B Power Station on Sunday.

Investigations into what sparked the inferno at the gas-fired Didcot B Power Station will continue until at least Monday.

But experts have ruled out arson or terrorism, and have said it may have been a cooling fan failure in one of the towers.

More than 75 fire fighters fought the flames at the station off Milton Road after 8pm with jets both from the ground and from steel platforms raised above the towers.

The blaze, which started in one of the cooling towers and spread to a further three, was brought under control by 10pm.

Energy firm RWE npower own the site.

Spokesman Kelly Brown said: "In terms of initial investigation between the fire service and ourselves all implications are saying the incident is focused on a cooling fan unit failure.

"The power station is officially made available until at least Monday but then it will be determined at that stage if extra investigation is required.

"The investigation will determine the full extent and whether that means further work."

The station is currently supplying power to the National Grid at half capacity - but other UK power stations are reportedly picking up the slack.

By Jack Johnson
jack@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Eye witnesses took to social media to spread the news and residents ventured to the top of Ladygrove housing estate's mound to see the fire.

Will Stammers, who lives at Great Western Park, said: "The blaze was well alight by 9pm and the emergency services were there and fully engaged.

"People were gathered outside and could not believe what was going on."

Dan Anderton, from Didcot, said he saw "lots of fire brigade, police and helicopters on the scene."

Simon Furlong, Oxfordshire County Council Fire and Rescue Service's assistant chief fire officer, confirmed there were no injuries.

Nearby residents were advised to stay indoors out of the smoke.

No power was lost as a result of Sunday's fire.

But Ms Brown said it is very unlikely the power station will be fully up and running next week because of very serious fire damage.

When asked when the power station would be back to 100 per cent, she said: "We genuinely don't know.

"It is a question mark."

• Firefighters battling the blaze with jets from platforms on Sunday (picture by PA/Press Association Images)

She denied speculation that Didcot B's halved capacity could cause power outages over the winter, adding: "There is always a buffer zone should a big power station drop or fall offline.

"On Sunday the lights didn't trip and the power was available to be diverged from other sources."

Neighbouring coal-fired Didcot A Power Station closed in March last year.

Three of its six large cooling towers were demolished in July.

Secretary of state for Energy Ed Davey added that his priority was to "understand the cause of the fire and get the affected unit back generating electricity as soon as it's safe to do so."

"A relationship built to last. Your Ford is still running strong after 4+ years. We'll keep it that way."

Blenheim Palace duke passes away

THE Duke of Marlborough died last week aged 88 after dedicating more than 40 years of his life to preserving Blenheim Palace in Woodstock.

John George Vanderbilt Henry Spencer-Churchill, the cousin of former Prime Minister Winston Churchill, died peacefully on October 16.

He inherited the dukedom from his father John Albert William Spencer-Churchill in 1972 and was the 11th Duke of Marlborough.

His funeral is to be held tomorrow.

The trustees of Blenheim Palace confirmed last week his eldest son Charles James Spencer-Churchill, the Marquess of Blandford, who was born in 1955, will succeed him as the 12th Duke.

Blenheim Palace declined to comment but issued a statement on its website.

It said: "After inheriting the dukedom on the death of his father in 1972, the Duke devoted his life to the preservation of the Palace for future generations.

By Jack Johnson
jack@taylornewspapers.co.uk

"His achievement was in succeeding in maintaining and improving his estate for the necessity of maintaining a World Heritage site, whilst balancing the needs of the modern day visitor."

During his governance of Blenheim, the 11th Duke introduced the Pleasure Gardens, including a railway, maze and butterfly house, and also set up the Churchill Exhibition.

He also restored his father's private gardens in 2004 as part of the tercentenary celebrations of the Battle of Blenheim in 1704 that saw the first Duke of Marlborough lead British, Dutch and Austrian troops to victory over French and Bavarian soldiers.

The 11th Duke also hosted sporting, cultural and charity events at the palace including the Blenheim Horse Trials and the Game Fair.

The palace's statement continued: "The trustees of Blenheim Palace would like to confirm that Charles James Spencer-Churchill, formerly known as the Marquis of Blandford has inherited his father`s titles and Blenheim Palace will become his family home.

"The trustees and staff at Blenheim look forward to working with him to continue the legacy of the 11th Duke in preserving and enhancing the Blenheim Palace World Heritage site for the benefit of future generations."

Blenheim Palace was opened in 1722 and was inscribed as a World Heritage Site in 1987, while the management of the palace was passed to a board of trustees in 2003.

The palace, park and gardens were closed last Friday and the palace and gardens will be so again tomorrow as a mark of respect.

Plans for new four-star Oxford hotel

A PROPERTY company wants to build a four-star hotel in Oxford.

Dominvs Hospitality has bought a site on Paradise Street near Oxford Castle and want to build a 120-plus bedroom hotel with health and wellness facilities.

The organisation hope to open the hotel in 2017 and could start building next year.

A planning application is yet to be submitted to Oxford City Council but spokesperson Olivia Marks said it could be handed in within the "next few weeks".

Preet Ahluwalia, director of Dominvs Hospitality, added: "The Oxford market has been firmly in our sights since our company's inception.

"This hotel development represents another important milestone for Dominvs Hospitality."

The company was formed in 2011 and has purchased nine sites across the country.

A Holiday Inn Express and Crowne Plaza hotel, both in Aberdeen, Scotland, will be the first to open in May and September 2015.

Time change

OXON: People in the county need to remember to turn back their clocks at 2am on Sunday, October 26.

Clocks will have to be put back one hour as there will be less daylight in the evenings due to the country going from British summer time to Greenwich Mean Time.

Although most phones, tablets and computers will automatically update themselves, people are reminded to change other time devices.

Tesco burglary

ABINGDON: A till tray and safe containing cash, a mobile phone and two watches were taken in a burglary at Timpsons, at Tesco in Marcham Road, on October 17.

Offenders forced entry to the shop between 6pm and 11.45pm.

Anyone with information should call police on 101 or call Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

Aldi plans

DIDCOT: Supermarket chain Aldi has submitted an application to discharge a condition on its application to build a store on The Broadway.

Aldi received planning permission from South Oxfordshire District Council (SODC) to build a new shop opposite the Jubilee Way roundabout in June.

The development is subject to the store being built to BREEAM (Building Research Establishment Environmental Assessment Methodology) Excellent standard.

Aldi sent SODC documents on October 15 to demonstrate that the building will be built to the right standard.

Officers will make a decision by December 10.

EDL leader back in prison

THE former leader of the English Defence League (EDL) has been forced to cancel his appearance at the Oxford Union this evening because he is in prison.

Tommy Robinson, who led anti-Islamic group the EDL between 2009 and 2013, was due to speak at the Union in Frewin Court from 7pm.

Mr Robinson was sentenced in January to 18 months in prison for mortgage fraud but was released in June under licence.

However, Mr Robinson tweeted on Tuesday that he would not be appearing at the Union because he had been recalled back to prison for responding to a death threat on Twitter.

Mr Robinson tweeted from his account: "I was going to speak at the Oxford Union this Thursday exposing police persecution and tactics for the past five years.

"All this to prevent the facts on Thursday."

Almost 200 people had signed an open letter from Oxford Unite Against Fascism (UAF) calling for the union to cancel its invitation to Mr Robinson.

Oxford University academics and students are among those to sign the petition as well as city councillors, trade union leaders and anti-racist campaigners.

Mr Robinson left the EDL in 2013 but Ian McKendrick from Oxford UAF said he has shown "no convincing sign of an abandonment of his view that Islam is the problem."

Mr McKendrick added: "By inviting Tommy Robinson the Oxford Union is contributing to a climate of Islam phobia which only encourages racism and Islamphobia and gives confidence for fascists to come out onto the streets of Oxford."

Building starts on new high-tech Didcot college

OVER 130 people have already shown interest in sending their children to Didcot's University Technical College despite building work having only started a month ago.

The UTC, being built at Great Western Park off Wantage Road by contractors Kier, will be the first of its kind in Oxfordshire when it opens in September 2015.

From the start of the next school year, the UTC will be open to 160 year 10 and 12 students before reaching a full capacity of 600 14 to 19-year-olds by 2019.

It will specialise in life science, physical sciences and engineering alongside GCSEs and A-Levels.

Educational organisation Activate Learning, lead sponsor of the UTC, held a meeting for prospective students at South Oxfordshire District Council on Tuesday where 138 people declared interest in starting next year.

A special event at the site yesterday marked the start of building work, which actually began on September 29.

By Jack Johnson
jack@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Lee Nicholls, executive director for curriculum standards and academies at Activate Learning, said: "We are already getting a momentum of interest.

"People are struck by the link with business and their work as well.

"They can see an outcome and it has started to prove quite popular."

Daily hours at the UTC would mirror that of a workplace environment with students arriving at 8.30am and leaving at 5pm.

They would also be required to wear business dress and there would be no school bell, with each student having access to a tablet for their timetables.

Principle designate Owain Johns said it is "hugely exciting" to see building work start and the UTC would employ up to 60 members of staff.

He added: "There will be no registration, and it will be conduct rather than behaviour.

"A longer working week will mean there will be no homework but independent learning during the day.

"It is a fundamentally different school experience which will give the students the skills, the resilience and the flexibility for a rapidly changing future."

Legal advice

ABINGDON: Vale of White Horse District Council is seeking legal advice to challenge a decision by Oxfordshire County Council to approve two controversial road crossings.

Cabinet member for Transport David Nimmo Smith approved proposals to relocate a pedestrian crossing on Marcham Road westwards and install a new one at Ock Street on October 9.

The application was previously rejected but developers Taylor Wimpey, who want to build a 159-home development on Drayton Road, challenged the decision.

Vale leader Matthew Barber is now seeking legal advice and said: "What is good enough for the developers is good enough for local people!"

Outdoor gym

DIDCOT: An outdoor gym at Edmonds Park in Park Road will be formally opened by the town mayor Scott Wilgrove on October 30.

The £70,000 gym was completed in the summer and includes a treadmill, leg press and pull-up bars.

Knife robbery

ABINGDON: A 31-year-old man has been arrested in connection with a robbery in Abingdon where a woman was threatened with a knife.

Between 10.30pm and 11pm on October 18, a man approached a group of three people at the corner of Stert Street and the Vineyard.

They threatened a woman and demanding money.

The 31-year-old man has been bailed until November 8.

Appeal to find victim of a sexual offence

AN appeal to find a woman who may be the victim of a sexual offence was launched by police yesterday.

A woman was approached by a distressed woman in Between Towns Road, Cowley, at 12.50am on Saturday.

She told the woman she was the victim of a sex offence.

Thames Valley Police launched a search to find the woman after the member of the public who she approached on Saturday contacted them.

Investigating officer Detective Sergeant Wojciech Spyt, from Oxford Force CID, said: "This woman seemed extremely distressed and I would like the woman to get in touch with officers so that we can check upon her welfare.

"The person who was approached was understandably worried about the woman, who was not known to her.

"The woman in question will know who she is and I would like to directly appeal to her to call us on 101 so that we can check that you are OK and that you have access to relevant support."

Contact police on 101 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555111.

Blueprint for Vale's 14,000 homes given last approval

VALE of White Horse District Council's housing plan is at its final hurdle and will be sent for government approval in the New Year.

The Vale's Local Plan 2031 was agreed by 29 votes to 21 at a full council meeting at The Beacon, Portway, Wantage, last Wednesday, October 16.

It details where 13,960 of the Vale's required 20,560 homes by 2031 will be located and will be open for a six-week consultation from November 7.

Vale officers will then collate the responses and send the plan to the Secretary of State of independent examination by early February 2015.

By Jack Johnson
jack@taylornewspapers.co.uk

District council leader Matthew Barber said: "There were plenty of members of the public who were very concerned about the detail of the plan.

"We have taken some very difficult decisions and I am very pleased we have got to this landmark stage.

"The consultation takes us to the middle of December.

"Then, although we don't respond to those consultations, there is still some technical work that needs to be done so it is likely to be late January or early February that it gets sent to the inspector."

Among the sites allocated for housing are the 2,550-home development at Valley Park in Harwell, 2,500 estate at Grove Airfield as well as sites at Crab Hill in Grove (1,500 homes) and north of Abingdon (800).

The local plan has sparked much debate among residents, - Harwell Parish Council chairman David Marsh described planned 5,000 new homes in and around the village as a "depressing situation".

Abingdon Town Council leader Sandy Lovatt told the Oxfordshire Guardian he was not "overjoyed" by the numbers but said the Vale has a "duty to make provisions".

Wantage and Grove Campaign Group leader Julie Mabberley spoke at last week's meeting.

She said: "The Local Plan is worthy of a communist regime where the "party" imposes its will on the people and not of a rural district in the South East of England where the government espouses "localism"."

Also included in the plan is the safeguarding of various land for transport schemes which include the dualling of the A4130, a bridge connecting Valley Park with former Didcot A power station, and a Thames crossing near Appleton.

A relief road west of Wantage towards Challow has also been included in the local plan.

Business case for train line

A BUSINESS plan is to be put together backing a campaign to re-open the Oxford to Bristol train line and Grove Station.

It was agreed at last week's full council meeting that Vale of White Horse District Council officers would compile commercial evidence supporting the plan.

Wantage MP Ed Vaizey and Abingdon MP Nicola Blackwood joined forces with 8 other MPs this month in a bid to resurrect the train line – which would take trains past Grove meaning the old station could be reopened.

Matthew Barber said: "There is already a lot of activity on this so this is just an extra little bit to see the Vale can do to support it."

The motion agreed last Wednesday was put forward by councillor Bob Johnston, seconded by councillor Jenney Hannaby, for Wantage.

Cllr Hannaby added: "I am extremely pleased it is recognised at long last that it is essential to have the station with all the houses being built. Wantage and Grove are taking all the pain with the houses – as well as Harwell which has been bashed."

Wantage relief road

VALE leader Matthew Barber says the district council has the money for a new £15million eastern Wantage relief road.

Wantage councillor Jenny Hannaby asked Cllr Barber whether funding for the link road had been secured at a full council meeting at The Beacon, Portway, last Wednesday, October 15.

The road, which would run from the A338 Mabley Road to the A417 towards Didcot, is hoped to ease traffic from the 1,500 home Crab Hill estate.

Cllr Barber said the road would be built in three sections with the Vale funding the middle section and Crab Hill developers Land Improvement Holdings building either side.

He added: "We have got contributions amounting to almost that sum from both developers and from the local infrastructure fund."

However, Cllr Hannaby said: "I was not convinced by his answer. I just need to be told this chunk is from the government, this is from the developers."

Meanwhile, Abingdon councillor Pat Lonergan asked Cllr Barber about the breakdown of funding for new £13.3m slip roads at Lodge Hill.

Cllr Barber said Vale is seeking funding from the Local Enterprise Partnership and 1,000 homes in the local plan will fund £5m of the project.

Two multi-million pound A34 road projects clash

MULTI-MILLION pound plans to build new slip roads at Chilton Interchange will begin in the New Year, clashing with works to turn Milton Interchange into a 'hamburger' roundabout.

A business plan for the £11million project to build north-facing slip roads at the junction was approved at an Oxfordshire County Council cabinet meeting in New Road on Tuesday.

County council leader Ian Hudspeth and director for environment and economy Sue Scane will now find a contractor for the project.

David Nimmo Smith, cabinet member for Transport, said the work would begin in January – at the same time road works will come into effect for the £10million project only 3.8miles down the road at Milton.

By Jack Johnson
jack@taylornewspapers.co.uk

However, Cllr Nimmo Smith said work at Chilton would not have as much impact as most of it will be done to the side of the carriageway.

"There will be little bits to sort out locally but essentially all the work is off road," he added.

"It will run in parallel with works at Milton."

• Work to build north-facing slip roads at Chilton Interchange - mirroring these south-facing will start in January

Changes at Chilton Interchange, which currently only has south-facing slip roads, will connect the A34 with the A4185 Newbury Road and Hagbourne Hill.

The project will be half funded by the Department for Transport's Local Pinch Point Funding.

Cllr Nimmo Smith continued: "I know we are improving capacity at Milton but by putting the new slip roads at Chilton we will be improving the capacity overall.

"This will be a win-win at the end of the day."

Improvement works at the interchange looked in doubt last month after Chilton Parish Council, a statutory consultee, objected to the plans.

The objection would have led to a public enquiry but it was dropped ahead of last Tuesday's cabinet meeting after discussions with the county council.

Meanwhile, Cllr Nimmo Smith said works at Milton Interchange, which are expected to begin on Monday, October 27, are still going to plan.

He added: "Some of the service provision will be starting and then the road works will start at the beginning of next year."

Local plan scrutiny

CHERWELL District Council's local plan will go before the Government for a second time after councillor's voted in favour of the revised version.

At a full council meeting at Bodicote House in Banbury on Monday, the local plan, which sets out sites to locate 22,800 homes between 2011 and 2031, was voted through.

If approved, the plan could be implemented from the beginning of next year.

It will now go to the Government Planning Inspector, who sent the local plan back to the district council in January, as it only accommodated 16,750 homes and did not meet Oxfordshire's Strategic Housing Market Assessment.

Planning officers have since reviewed over 500 sites and the revised plan proposes 7,319 homes for Banbury, 10,129 homes in Bicester and 5,392 to be built across Kidlington and rural areas.

Michael Gibbard, lead member for planning, said: "Cherwell is not responsible for setting housing targets but it is responsible for meeting them.

"What this document does is look at where these houses could go so there is some structure to developments, rather than risking homes being built sporadically across the area.

"Having reviewed the local plan to meet the requirements of the SHMA, councillors are in agreement that the named development sites do meet the Government's planning guidelines laid out for acceptable housing locations."

New leader of district council announced

JOHN Cotton will take South Oxfordshire District Council into next year's elections after being formally chosen as its new leader last week.

Cllr Cotton, ward member for Sandford, replaces Ann Ducker as leader of the council and Conservative group after she died of cancer last month.

The Conservative group voted for Cllr Cotton over Anna Badcock as its new leader in a secret ballot on October 14.

Chairman of the group Malcolm Leonard proposed Cllr Cotton to be leader of the council and he was elected unopposed at a full council meeting in Benson Lane, Crowmarsh, on October 16.

Cllr Cotton said he was "excited by the prospect" of becoming leader.

He added: "As it has been said, it is going to be a challenge to fill those (Ann Ducker's) shoes but I shall have a damn good try.

"I hope that myself and my colleagues in the new cabinet give cause for the whole council to say a job well done when we get to May 2015."

By Jack Johnson
jack@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Rev Angie Paterson has been chosen as the council's deputy leader, while Cllr Cotton has also added three new members to the cabinet, including himself.

He will be the cabinet member for corporate strategy, economic development, and Wallingford.

While Will Hall (Finance and Henley) and Robert Simister (Property, Technical Services and Southern Parishes) have been added to the cabinet.

Cllr Cotton has added new portfolios for towns and areas across the district.

Originally, only Didcot had a cabinet member but now Wallingford, Thame, Henley, northern, central and southern parishes will also have elected members.

Mrs Ducker held the portfolio for Didcot and therefore Bill Service, who is also on the town council, will hold that position as well as his current Leisure responsibility.

Cllr Cotton said: "Members will recognise that previously Didcot was named as a cabinet portfolio.

"Clearly Bill will carry that on superbly well but I think it is also right that the other towns and indeed the parishes have a single point of contact within the cabinet for policy issues they may have a concern with.

"I will be expecting those cabinet members to be taking an over arching view on all policy issues that we have across the council and as they relate specifically to their patches."

• New SODC leader John Cotton

SODC's new cabinet:

John Cotton – Corporate Stategy, Economic Development and Wallingford

Angie Patterson – Planning Policy, Customer Services

Anna Badcock – Housing

David Dodds – Waste and Thame

Elizabeth Gillespie – Development/Building Control, Grants and Northern Parishes

Will Hall – Finance and Henley

Bill Service – Leisure and Didcot

Lynn Lloyd – IT, HR, Legal and Democratic Services

Judith Nimmo-Smith – Health, Community Safety and Central Parishes

Councillors pay respects to former South Oxfordshire leader

TRIBUTES poured in for the former leader of South Oxfordshire District Council Ann Ducker at last week's first full meeting since she died last month.

Mrs Ducker (pictured), 71, who lived at South Stoke Farm, near Wallingford, was suffering with cancer for most of this year and died on September 21.

She became leader in 2003 and had been a district councillor for 31 years after she was elected to office in 1983 as the ward member for Goring.

She had a big interest in agriculture and ran a family business with husband.

New leader John Cotton said at the meeting held on October 16 that he intends to seek for posthumous aldermanship for Mrs Ducker and also wishes to set up a bursary in her name to help young people become involved in public service.

He added: "Ann will be missed by all members and indeed officers on this council and I think that says a huge amount for what she has done for us."

Leader of the Labour group Eleanor Hards said: "I obviously didn't share her politics but she was always fair and we knew where we stood with her."

David Turner, leader of the Lib Dems added: "I have always had great respect for Ann and I am going to miss her very much."

Independent councillor Neville Harris said Mrs Ducker had "a glare that would derail a train" and "a smile that would melt an iceberg".

He added: "I had no trouble with the glare, it encouraged me rather than deterred me, but the smile so often came to get me off the rails I had to use all my fortitude to stay on them."

Market expands

OXFORD: Gloucester Green outdoor market will now be held on Saturdays as well as its usual Wednesday and Thursday slot.

The market off George Street, run by Oxford City Council, is for locally produced and international foods.

Spokesperson for market operators LSD Promotions Ltd and Geraud (UK) Ltd Dermot McGillicuddy, said: "We are very excited about the new day for Oxford."

Horse racing

OXFORD: Cambridge University clinched victory over Oxford in the first Varsity horse race at Newmarket, Suffolk, on Saturday, October 17.

Light blues rider Kate Walters on Ocean Applause beat fellow Cambridge student Evie Hampson to first.

Oxford's Charlotte Lindesay-Bethune finished third at the Rowley Mile course as she was beaten by four lengths.

City fireworks

OXFORD: The city's firework display is taking place on November 8 in South Park on Headington Hill.

Organised by the Oxford Round Table, last year's firework display helped raise £38,000 for Vale House nursing home in Sandford.

This year's event starts at 4.30pm with tickets costing £6.

Fire fighter's emergency medical skills praised

By Mathew Di Salvo
mathew@taylornewspapers.co.uk

THE emergency medical skills of Oxfordshire's fire fighters have been praised in a report published on Tuesday by fellow fire fighters.

Senior officers from fire and rescue services in Cornwall and Berkshire commended Oxfordshire Fire and Rescue Service's first-on-the-scene medical abilities in a peer review.

Cornwall's chief fire officer Des Tidbury and vice chairman of the Royal Berkshire Fire Authority Pauline Helliar-Symons applauded their training – with South Central Ambulance Service.

Their partnership with Oxfordshire County Council was also praised.

Oxfordshire Fire and Rescue Service's Chief Fire Officer, Dave Etheridge, said: "I am delighted with the outcome of the recent peer review - it is the result of hard work by staff across the fire and rescue service and beyond.

"It is particularly pleasing that some of our work has been highlighted as being of notable practice.

"I would like to thank everybody for their involvement in helping make Oxfordshire as safe as possible.

"We recognise the high value in collaborating with our county council colleagues and other agencies and really feel that this integrated approach benefits all who are involved.

"We will not however rest on our laurels and will continue to strive to further improve the way we serve Oxfordshire's public."

Oxfordshire County Council's cabinet agreed to publish the report's findings on Tuesday.

Oxfordshire County Council's deputy leader Rodney Rose, who has Cabinet responsibility for the fire service, said: "People locally are fortunate to have such a high-performing and well-respected fire and rescue service and my congratulations go to everybody involved in achieving such an impressive peer review result."

The peer review is managed by the Local Government Association and the Chief Fire Officers Association.

Police appeal after golf club attack

POLICE are asking for the public's help in tracing five men in connection with an incident at a Bicester petrol station in August when a man was attacked with a golf club.

At 3.20am on August 30, a man was left with a fractured eye socket and broken jaw after being hit with a club at the Gulf petrol station in Buckingham Road.

The victim had become involved in an altercation before the incident.

Police have now published the images of men they would like to speak to in connection to the petrol station assault.

Investigating officer, Det Con Joe Stevenson said: "If you are one of, or recognise any of, the men from the images, please come forward as we would like to speak to you."

Call police on 101 if you have any information.

Shed blaze

MILTON HEIGHTS: A large wooden shed caught fire in Trenchard Avenue on October 16.

Its owner battled to keep flames at bay until the emergency services arrived.

A crew from Didcot was called to the scene at 6.24pm and extinguished the fire, thought to have started by an electrical issue inside the shed.

The 65-year-old man suffered minor burns to his hands and face while trying to put out the fire and was taken to hospital for precautionary measures.

School deadline

OXON: Parents are being reminded the deadline for their children's secondary school applications for September 25 ends next Friday, October 31.

Families should state three preferences, including their catchment school, and apply by visiting oxfordshire.gov.uk.

The deadline for primary and junior school applications is January 15.

Charity banks

CHERWELL: Unwanted clothing can be dropped off at 15 new charity banks in Kidlington, Bicester and Banbury.

They were installed by the Salvation Army and Cherwell District Council.

Money raised from recycling the clothes will be split between the charity and council.

War veteran out in force with Poppy Appeal army

FROM this Saturday wheelchair-bound army veteran Robert Newton will mark 25 years of sitting outside Wantage's Waitrose 10 hours a day for 13 days.

Every year the 63-year-old, from Grove, sets up camp outside the town centre store to sell poppies for the duration of the Poppy Appeal.

in the British Armed Forces selling the poppy pins until Remembrance Day on November 9.

Mr Newton – an army veteran who served in Northern Ireland in 1972 – said: "I can't do much more than I do – I sit there for almost 12 hours a day.

"We really need people to give generously because we need to look after troops and their families- especially with Afghanistan, a lot of people need help.

"I don't mind it really, you get a lot of people who come up to say 'you must be freezing', but I like that you can have a laugh or a joke with them."

Last year Wantage raised £18,222 for the charity to help pay for rehab and recovery centers, among other projects.

Oxfordshire county councillor Jenny Hannaby has taken over as Wantage's poppy appeal organiser from former RAF Group Captain David Drew.

She said: "it was a great honour to follow in David's footsteps as the Wantage Branch Poppy Appeal organiser I hope to build on his success."

Mr Drew added: "The RBL is sometimes seen as an old man's organisation but in today's world with conflicts in Iraq and Afganistan we do more work these days for the young rather than the old."

About 30 volunteers usually help out selling poppies around Wantage.

To join in the charity effort or become a volunteer email contact details jenny@yeomanryhouse.co.uk or call 01235 772778.

MP's Corner

Andrew Smith

MP for Oxford East

ON Friday, October 10, it was World Mental Health Day, where all of us are encouraged to reflect on challenges posed by mental illness, both for sufferers themselves, and also their families and for our wider community.

One in four of us will suffer from mental illness in over the course of our lifetimes, and the number is rising.

Mental health is undoubtedly one of the biggest challenges our country faces, and yet mental health services have suffered greatly from the Tory-Lib Dem Governments NHS cuts and reorganisation.

Vulnerable people, including children, are forced to travel hundreds of miles in search of a bed.

Mental health funding is being cut more deeply than the rest of the NHS, whilst waiting times for talking therapies have got longer.

We need a determined effort both to reverse the barrage of cuts that are currently facing our services, and to take mental health services out of the dark ages.

I am actively engaged at the moment in challenging the very damaging proposed cuts to the complex needs service here in Oxfordshire.

The cuts, which amount to a staggering two thirds of existing funding, are amongst the most savage and damaging cuts our county has faced in recent years.

They would have devastating consequences for mentally-ill people, their families and for our wider community.

As a result the local NHS Trust forecasts a 1,200 increase in suicidal acts, with severe implications for human suffering and loss of life, not to mention increased demands on existing services.

I am always happy to help my constituents wherever I can.

If you are having difficulties email me at Andrew.Smith.MP@gmail.com, or call me on 01865 595 790.

£60k prize pot

THE deadline for entries to the Spark Vale Business Idea Competition has been extended to this Sunday, October 26, as the prize pot topped the £60,000 mark.

The competition will see the district's entrepreneurs compete for a share of the business support services prize in three categories - best business growth idea, best new business idea for under-25s, and best new business idea for over-25s - at a Dragons' Den style final during November.

To enter, entrepreneurs need to complete an online application form at www.sparkvale.co.uk summing up their idea.

Spark Vale is a Vale4Business and ByBox funded business support initiative and competition.

Historic town hall to become business hub

By Kelly Lea
news@taylornewspapers.co.uk

OXFORD Innovation and Oxford City Council have launched a new business and innovation centre in Oxford's Town Hall.

Known as 'One St Aldates', it's part of the council's aim to up the range of office space for start-up and small to medium sized businesses in the city centre.

The move stems from the council's economic development team who conducted a review of business accommodation available in Oxford to support the city's increasing number of innovative start-ups and university 'spin-out' companies.

Chris Allington, MD of Oxford Innovation - the UK's leading operator of business and innovation centres - said: "We are delighted to form a partnership with Oxford City Council which will provide fantastic support to local businesses in Oxford City's prestigious and historic Town Hall.

"The location is a very attractive proposition for any ambitious business that is looking for an impressive base with the flexibility to grow."

One St Aldates can support up to 16 growing companies in 6,000 sq ft of serviced offices, available from 75 sq ft to 1,170 sq ft.

Leader of the city council Bob Price said: "The city council's economic development strategy identified the need for more starter units as a key element in sustaining the city's rapid employment growth over the past decade, and the starter unit review report stimulated our plans to convert the Carfax block from its former use as offices for council staff into a focus for innovation activity."

One St Aldates was marketed on behalf of the Council by VSL & Partners.

Director Richard Venables, said: "One St Aldates was an unusual building because it was sub-divided into so many smaller rooms and split over four floors.

"It ideally suits a serviced office function and given its central location should be very popular."

Solar panels on business parks

IN THIS month's guest column, Robyn Fibuch, from Jennings - who run business parks and centres in Oxfordshire - on their latest solar installation:

We're pleased to announce that the Hampden House and Ashgrove House buildings on our Monument Park site in Chalgrove have now been fitted with photovoltaic (PV) solar panels.

At Jennings, we're always looking for new ways to invest in renewable energy and improve our 'green' credentials.

Having seen the benefits of installing PV panels on the roof of unit 37 Monument Park last year, we decided to expand the project to our serviced office buildings.

As before, we worked with renewable energy specialists, EnergyMyWay, to complete the project, with the installation taking just over a week.

We can now produce electricity with reduced carbon emissions for these buildings and should see our bills significantly reduced through generating a large proportion of our own electricity.

And the best part is any electricity that is surplus to requirements is exported back to the National Grid, giving us alternative income.

Display screens have been fitted in Hampden House reception and the entrance to Ashgrove House, which show exactly how much electricity is being generated and how much CO_2 is being saved.

So far we have saved more than 300kg of carbon in Hampden House alone - in just one week.

These three buildings should save around 65 tonnes of CO_2 each year, plus generate enough electricity to power the equivalent of more than 30 homes.

A BEAUTIFUL DRIVEWAY LEADS TO A BEAUTIFUL HOME

The New Driveway Company is an independent, family-run driveway firm. We help homeowners to transform the identity of their properties by creating driveways that combine sympathetic, exceptional design with the highest quality of materials and workmanship. Our highly-skilled team of designers and craftsmen work in close partnership with you to create a driveway that compliments your home, enhancing its natural charm and adding immeasurable value to its kerb appeal. The New Driveway Company services Oxford, Abingdon, Didcot, Wallingford, Wantage, Witney, Bicester and Banbury so we cover the whole of Oxfordshire.

DRIVEWAY RENOVATION

We also provide a block driveway renovation service. If you have a driveway that's looking a little worse for wear, and you don't want to go the whole way and replace it, simply give us a call and we can come and restore it to its former glory.

We employ a simple three stage renovation process when restoring driveways - clean, sand and seal. The first stage is a straightforward cleaning of your driveway, removing any accumulated grime and rejuvenating the paving. After this, we sweep sand across your driveway to fill the grooves between the blocks, restoring the evenness and uniformity of your driveway. Finally, when renovating non-permeable driveways, we apply a waterproofing sealant, which aids and abets water runoff and drainage.

Client testimonial July 2014

"Would highly recommend. From Darren giving us the quote right through to the completion, we were kept informed and updated. The team are very hard working, polite and attentive of your requirements. The difference the work has made, makes the front of our house so much better and lots of neighbours have commented on how hard the guys worked and what a great job they have done."

Congestion concerns halt roundabout work

MAJOR work to improve one of Oxford's busiest roundabouts has been put on hold until the New Year after concerns over more traffic congestion in the city.

The Plain roundabout is to be revamped and resurfaced for pedestrians and cyclists as part of £1.3million works.

But the scheme, due to start on Monday, October 20, will now begin after Christmas after a backlash of complaints from drivers about the number of road projects being undertaken at the same time.

Motorists are already facing backlogs on the Southern By-Pass where a contra-flow is in place due to the works at Kennington and Hinksey Hill roundabouts, as well as ongoing resurfacing roadworks on London Road in Headington, and preparation work around Frideswide Square - for which the main revamp work is due to start in February.

By Jack Johnson
jack@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Part of the project - changing the traffic light timing at Longwall Street, off the High Street, which leads up to The Plain - has already begun.

Oxfordshire County Council leader Ian Hudspeth (left) said: "Because of the concerns people have raised about congestion on the roads we have decided to postpone work on The Plain roundabout."

He added: "The work must be done, but we have decided to do it all after Christmas when the work at Kennington will be complete and the busy Christmas shopping period is out of the way."

Work includes widening of footpaths, a raised junction, narrowing of carriageways on the roundabout, and an early release at the lights for eastbound cyclists by Magdalen College, High Street.

Funding for Xmas light festival

THREE groups in Oxford have been awarded funding by the city's Christmas Light Festival to help put together performances across next month's three-day event.

The Ark T Centre in Crowell Road, Magdalen Road Studios in partnership with the Pegasus Theatre and Arts at the Old Fire Station in George Street with Oxford Playhouse will receive grants.

Community groups in Oxford applied for funding to create their own event for the festival, which runs from November 21 to 23.

Oxford City Council's board member for culture and communities, Christine Simm, said: "It is very important that local communities have the support to realise new ideas and have the opportunity to be a part of a community celebration such as this.

"The Christmas Light Festival is a fantastic event that brings everyone together in the spirit of Christmas every year."

The Ark T Centre will receive £1,720 for a 12-minute performance called 'Stardust and Snowflakes' at the University of Oxford Natural History Museum in Parks Road on November 21 and 22.

Magdalen Road Studios has been awarded £1,890 to work in partnership with Pegasus Theatre to create a Pop-Up festival called Streetlight from 11am to 5pm on November 22 and 23.

And Arts at the Old Fire Station has been awarded £1,000 for programming an 'Artistic Takeaway' containing starters, main and dessert in Gloucester Green on November 21 and 22.

The Christmas Light Festival is co-ordinated by Oxford City Council and management company Ian Nolan Events.

Rocking out at the O2

BRITISH punk-rock band The Subways will be rocking out at Cowley Road's O2 Academy next Friday, October 31.

The threesome from Hertfordshire have been together since the early 2000's and launched their latest tour this month.

They have dates in Barcelona, Paris and Amsterdam set up over the next few months.

By James Richings
jamesr@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Guitarist and co-vocalist Billy Lunn told the Oxfordshire Guardian: "We've played at the O2 Academy in Oxford before, and it's always been an amazing gig for us.

"We all cannot wait to go back.

"When we perform, we like to get a little raucous and sweaty, but importantly, we just love to have fun.

"Hopefully we'll have the room smiling and crowd surfing in no time!"

Since their formation, the rockers have released three studio albums - all three of which peaked in the UK Album Charts.

Their last album, 'Money and Celebrity' was released in 2011 sparking speculation another could be on the cards.

Lunn confirmed: "The new album will be officially released in February 2015, but if you pre-order now, you get the first six tracks straight away.

"We just couldn't wait for people to hear our new stuff."

Lunn then added: "I don't think we'll ever get to number one, but that's not such a bad thing.

"We just consider ourselves so lucky to even be able to pick up our guitars and drum sticks every day, and have a room full of crazy folks to play and sing to.

"Writing songs whilst rocking out is more than enough to keep us happy!

He added: "I would love to collaborate with Tegan and Sara.

"They have written some amazing songs - it would be an honour to jam with those guys!"

Tickets cost £11.50 for a 6.30pm start.

The music of The Willows

FOLK band The Willows are performing at the Old Fire Station on Tuesday, October 28.

By James Richings
jamesr@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Formed back in 2010 and originally from Cambridge, the group are in Oxford on their autumn tour, 'Amidst Fiery Skies', promoting their latest album with the same name.

Co-vocalist Jade Rhiannon, who also plays the Shruti Box - an organ-like Indian instrument, said: "We have heard great things about the venue and really look forward to playing our music there.

"We are a folk band with a heavy influence from both the English and American folk tradition.

"I think our audience can anticipate a mixture of songs from emotive ballads to foot stompers."

She added: "We shall be playing a lot of the new songs from our new album, as well as a number from out first album 'Beneath Our Humble Soil' which came out last year."

During the summer, the band performed at number of festivals including Glastonbury and The Warwick Folk Festival.

After a 10-day break, they were back on their feet, touring all over the country.

Rhiannon said The Willows have been enjoying a tight-schedule resently.

"It has been very busy, but we love writing and playing," she added.

"When we are not busy with The Willows, you'll find most of us still playing music, or making cider or jam."

When asked if the band are shooting for a number one in the UK charts, Rhiannon joked: "To be honest I can't see it happening in the mainstream charts, unless we collaborate with someone like Rihanna or write the Christmas advert for John Lewis!"

The gig is due to start at 8pm, with tickets costing £10.

The boys are back in town

SINCE their formation in 1978, UB40 have achieved monstrous success all over the world.

The group have been nominated for Best Reggae Album at the Grammy's on four separate occasions, sold over 70 million records worldwide and seen 50 of their singles hit the UK charts.

So fans will no doubt bring high expectations as they flock to the O2 Academy in Cowley Road on Monday, October 27.

Their latest album, 'Getting Over the Storm', which was released last September, peaked at number 29 in the UK album charts.

By James Richings
jamesr@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Drummer Jimmy Brown told the Oxfordshire Guardian, the group plan on recording new material - and are still firm believers reggae music is important and powerful.

"We're planning on recording new stuff, we want to go back to our roots - we would like to make it political", the 57-year-old said.

"I think reggae is still really relevant today. It is unifying music.

"Everyone still likes reggae. In '72 King Tubby was the music we were buying, and that inspired us."

The group have recently been on a hiatus.

However, since their return, Brown has described the response as 'wonderful', and said the group is keen to get on tour.

"We took three to four years off and the response has been wonderful.

"The audiences have been lovely, it's been our best response in a couple of decades."

Brown added: "I think in the end we are a good live band.

"When we perform live, we sound how we should perform.

"If we never make another record we will always want to go on stage.

"We are a big band that are used to big audiences."

The current UB40 tour starts tomorrow, October 24 in York, and will round up on March 27 in Basel, Switzerland.

Oxford's O2 Academy gig starts at 7pm.

Tickets have now sold out for this event.

For more details about other shows visit www.ub40.co.uk/performances.

What our customers are saying:

"Ridgeway cared as much as we did about everything being just right."

"It's little things - like the carousels. Now everything's so easy to reach."

"We didn't have to compromise. We got the kitchen we'd always wanted."

"When you look at the quality, we definitely got value for money."

Options and services we offer

A Private Consultation with our kitchen specialist to learn about your needs, explain the various options, and agree the basic specification of your kitchen.

Design Your project manager makes a site visit to confirm layout and all measurements, then we'll meet with you to finalise details: design, plan, colours, worktops, and any appliances. Once you are satisfied, we'll place the order, and finally deliver to your site.

In addition we can install. Our professionally trained team of fitters will install your kitchen to the highest standards. Dealing with the building work, electrical and gas installation if required. We will project manage the whole process to perfection to make sure you have all the pleasure and none of the hassle.

We don't subcontract out these critical services.

KBDG PRESENT 'KINDERTRANSPORT' BY DIANE SAMUELS
As the clouds of war gather in 1930s Germany, a desperate mother forces her young daughter onto a train, sending her out of danger and into the arms of strangers. In peaceful, suburban, 1980s England, a proud mother prepares to say farewell to her grown-up daughter, as she cuts the ties of childhood to leave the family home. Then a chance discovery opens an unhealed wound.

Compere

Sally-Anne Hayward combines the things you shouldn't like about your best friend's mum with the sensibilities of Jack the Ripper.

*"Sally is the funniest female entertainer I have ever seen. She is hilarious and deserves to be a Superstar."– Sir Norman Wisdom, OBE

*"...one of the most likeable on stage presences on the circuit and some truly brilliant routines!"– Chortle.co.uk

Matthew Baylis has travelled the globe with his own unique brand of unashamedly middle class comedy, sharing stories of growing up and getting old in the leafy suburbs of middle England. Tales of parenthood which ring true with audiences of all ages.

*"...ticklingly dry wit and razor-sharpcrowd-work kept the audience feeling as if they were indulging in their favourite guilty pleasure."– The Gazette

WIN tickets to the Magic of Motown's Reach Out® tour

CELEBRATING 50 years of UK number one hit singles, the Magic of Motown is coming to Oxford with its all-new Reach Out 2014 Tour and we have two pairs of tickets to give away.

Simply answer the question at the foot of this article and send in to win!

In 1964 songs like Dancing in the Street, My Girl, Where Did Our Love Go, My Guy and Baby Love rocketed Motown to the top of the singles charts. Incredibly, 100 more Motown No1s followed worldwide.

The Magic of Motown 2014 Reach Out Tour brings to the stage 36 of these chart toppers back-to-back in one critically-acclaimed production.

Direct from the USA, The Magic of Motown delivers five-star performances that authentically revive the style and sophistication of everyone's favourite legends from the famous, Detroit-based record label.

This year more number one songs than ever before feature. Classic hits from the Temptations, Four Tops, Jackson 5, Stevie Wonder, Marvin Gaye, Lionel Richie and The Supremes are packed into the two-hour spectacular.

Closing date:
Friday, November 21, 2014.

WIN TICKETS!

The first two entries drawn in our exclusive competition will win a pair of tickets to the show at the New Theatre on Thursday, December 4th. To enter please answer this simple question:

Q: In which American city was the Motown label based?

To buy tickets contact The New Theatre: Box office 0844 8713020

SPOOKTACULAR HALF TERM

Why not look in at the Look Out Discovery Centre this half term?

October half term is a fantastic time to visit The Look Out Discovery Centre!

Set in a beautiful forest to walk or cycle around, with a popular adventure play area, there is also the main attraction inside, which is the exhibition with over 90 hands-on science and nature activities.

There is a real variety of activities such as taking a picture of your shadow, making a mini animation, firing up a hydrogen rocket, building an unfinished house, playing in the toddler supermarket, launching the hot air balloon, creating circuits plus more!

The hands-on activities are mostly geared towards primary school and pre-school children. However, there is something for all ages.

Lasting until January 4 next year will be 'Starlab – a Portable Planetarium'.

There is a choice of two amazing journeys through space, subject to minimum numbers and an additional charge to the main admission fee.

'Space Stories' will take place every Saturday and Sunday from 11am, noon and 3.15pm, which is aimed for 3-7 year olds.

'Exploring the Solar System', will also take place every Saturday and Sunday until January 4 at 2pm. This is aimed for children over the age of 7.

It will cost £1.85 per child with under four's going for free.

There will also be a fun quiz about our solar system with a fantastic prize for one lucky winner, that our lovely visitors can enjoy.

In addition to the hands-on science and nature exhibition where there is lots to do for toddlers, we are putting on special activities just for toddlers!

Activities include art and craft; play dough, face or hand painting and story telling.

On toddler days, you can buy one drink and get another free to the same value, and it's also a great place to meet up with friends.

This will cost £6.65 per parent and toddler and an additional £1.50 for an extra child. (Prices valid until 31/3/15).

There will also be a coffee and gift shop on site, which is open from 10am-5pm.

Come and visit us as The Look Out Discovery Centre, Nine Mile Ride, Bracknell, Berkshire, RG12 7QW.

Alternatively, you can contact us on 01344 354400 or email us on thelookout@bracknell-forest.gov.uk.

You can also visit our website and Facebook pages on www.bracknell-forest.gov.uk/thelookoutdiscoverycentre and at www.facebook.com/thelookoutdiscovery.

The Look Out is closed from 24th-26th December and 12th-16th January 2015 for the annual maintenance and staff-training week.

SPOOKTACULAR HALF TERM

Get on the right track with Didcot Railway Centre

NOW recognised as being one of the leading centres of its type, Didcot Railway Centre first opened as a visitor attraction in 1967.

The Railway Centre recreates the golden age of the Great Western Railway with a fine collection of over 20 steam locomotives. Many housed in the original engine shed, and a collection of passenger coaches and freight wagons.

The centre now offers a wide range of features for visitors to enjoy as they wander around the site, including the original main building of the 1932 Engine Shed.

Amongst the most popular events are the centre's 'Steam Day's'. This will provide visitors with a chance to ride in coaches pulled by a restored locomotive.

With the year slowly drawing to a close, the final school holiday (half term) steam days are on October 25, October 26 and October 29.

As always, the year finishes with Thomas and Father Christmas.

Families will be able to ride behind the famous blue engine, and meet Father Christmas in his grotto.

This year, it will be held on the following dates:

Saturday 29 November
Sunday 30 November
Saturday 6 December
Sunday 7 December
Saturday 13 December
Sunday 14 December
Saturday 20 December
Sunday 21 December

Also, for those who would like a rest and purchase a souvenir, we have a gift shop and a refreshment room.

For full details, contact Didcot Railway Centre on 01235 817200, or visit the website at www.didcotrailwaycentre.org.uk.

SPOOKTACULAR HALF TERM

National Trust Stowe

ENJOY autumn and the simple pleasures of crunchy leaves, crisp air and low glittering sun as you get out and make the most of family time over the October half term.

Discover a variety of spooky free family fun activities at National Trust Stowe. Our home-grown pumpkins in their many varieties will be magically hidden in the garden, waiting to reveal spooky potion ingredients. Follow the pumpkin trail to uncover the creepy clues, cast a spell and claim your prize.

Some kids just love crafts, drop by the New Inn visitor centre for make and take crafts. Make a witches wand and leaf crown before making your way out into the garden to cast a spell over the temples and trees. Find a misty lake on an early morning drizzly day to let your child's imaginations fly; can they see the ghouls and ghosts of Stowe rise from the lakes? Warm up with a hot chocolate and scrumptious cake in our café.

For those that have no fear of the slimy and slippery, join us on a hunt for slugs and snails in the garden before setting up a slimy race! It's another of the 50 things to do before your 11 and ¾, so book on now to reserve a place on this free event on 28 Oct.

We know Halloween is often reserved for the children, but we wouldn't want the parents to miss out on the ghoulish fun!

Calling all amateur detectives – Murder at New Inn! On 7 Nov 7-11.30pm, the stage is set for an interactive murder mystery 3-course dining experience with the performing cast of Moneypenny Productions which you'll find your host Dead over Dinner. Tickets: £36.50 per person, over 18's.

Pumpkin trail and crafts available daily 24 Oct- 2 Nov 10am-6pm.

Immerse yourself in the Living Rainforest

DESCRIBED as a hidden gem, the Living Rainforest is an educational charity with a popular ecological visitor centre based near Newbury.

Our visitors get a unique rainforest experience, with over 700 plant and animal species, including some rare and endangered.

There is always a chance to spot free ranging birds, lizards and butterflies and for the lucky few, a chance to catch a glimpse of our free ranging sloth.

Throughout the half term holidays visitors can sign up for free guided tours, ask our friendly and knowledgeable guides about the rainforest and encourage your children to join in with their questions.

Outside there is a play area for the kids which is great for burning off their excess energy, whilst inside there is an area where you can join in with our daily craft activities and take home a souvenir of your visit.

You can visit us at The Living Rainforest/Trust for Sustainable Living, Hampstead Norrey's, Berkshire, RG18 0TN.

Homes, Gardens & Interiors

IT'S amazing to think that we are now at the end of October, and 2014 is coming to an end. This year is flying by.

Conkers, golden leaves and the crisp air are just some of the things that we have seen over the last weeks, as the winter closes in.

So when it gets colder the majority of us will be staying inside, trying to think of multiple ways of keeping warm.

Along with keeping warm, you might be thinking of ways to redesign your home, garden of interior.

You might think that the TV stand is out of touch with the living room and needs replacing. With Christmas in a couple of month's time, you might be considering a new dining room table to have your scrumptious Christmas dinner on. You might be pondering over a new shed, to liven up your garden throughout the winter months.

There are plenty of things to consider as we come to close the year.

So to help you with your homes, gardens and interior dilemmas we spoke to a few businesses in Oxfordshire, to see what they can offer.

Oxford Doors and Security

OXFORD Ironmongery, the door hardware specialist have expanded with the opening of a new shop selling timber doors in Martson, Oxford.

The new outlet, called Oxford Doors & Security, will display beautiful internal and external timber doors in a realistic setting.

The showroom is the only one of it's kind in the area, and builds on Oxford Ironmongery's 33 years of experience in the door hardware market.

As well as aesthetics of the doors themselves, our trained and experienced staff will be on hand to advise customers with their security, safety and accessibility requirements.

The showroom displays a full range of glazed, semi-glazed and unglazed doors in contemporary and traditional designs, which is all natural timber.

The full range of stylish door furniture for which Oxford Ironmongery is well-known for, will also be on show with special security products also being selected to keep homes safe and secure.

Julian Newman, Director of Oxford Ironmongery is convinced that customers will be pleasantly surprised by the doors on display, at the new Oxford Door and Security shop.

Mr Newman said, "The timber door offering has really come on in leaps and bounds over the last few years, and these doors are now manufactured to engineering standards."

Julian then added, "The old contraction and expansion issues are long gone; the modern timber door is made in a technically advanced factory where attention to detail is the absolute norm".

Feel free to come and see us. We're located on 53 Westland Drive, Martson, Oxford, OX3 9SQ.

Our Dining Room Design Ideas

The dining room is our favourite room in the house by far. It's such a social hub, a room that brings friends and family together.

Your dining room design needs to be versatile enough to allow for quick weeknight dinners, long Sunday lunches with the family and dinner dates with friends that go into the early hours of the following day.

The dining room is nothing if not the heart of your home. If you are looking for dining room design ideas with pine or oak dining room furniture, follow our tips to make your space look completely divine with just a few simple changes.

Our pine dining tables look spectacular against muted tones and sand coloured textiles, whether it be curtains, chair backs or table covers.

Make your own dining room paradise and use bamboo place mats, vases with leafy arrangements and adorn the walls with holiday snaps, travel souvenirs or maybe even a map of the world. Designing your dining room is a chance for you to get really personal with the style of your home.

If you keep your dining rooms for formal use, it's a great idea to try and keep the table set all the time; it looks impressive and gives a vibe of grandeur and exclusivity – the ideal combination for elegant dining room design.

Another fantastic dining room design idea is to contrast the wood against white chairs and white walls, but add a splash of colour with multicoloured accessories.

We love how this dining design jumps out and grabs you from the second you walk through to door. Another emerging dining room trend that is taking the decor world by storm this year is purposely-mismatched chairs.

Mix colours, sizes, and styles; or if you are just beginning to dabble with your dining room colour scheme, match the chairs to each other but not the table for aSubtle dining room design can give you an equally delightful dining space. For starters, all you need for some gorgeous dining room design is a statement dining room table. This will form the foundations of the room and you can always add more decorative pieces and stylish effects over time.

Simple touches such as interesting light fixtures and feature walls are easy to do, plus they never really go out of fashion. If all else fails, a statement fruit bowl or candelabra instantly makes a room look homely and lived in.

So for somewhere to serve up delicious dinners and sumptuous suppers come and see us and we'll get you dining in style in no time!

We're located in both Bicester and Banbury, so give us a ring on 01869 248 864 (Bicester) or on 01295 277 044 (Banbury).

Kayleigh Groves, A Touch of Pine.

The Bathroom and Kitchen Studio

THERE will come a time in most our lives when using a bathroom can become incredibly difficult.

Here at The Bathroom and Kitchen Studio in Kidlington, we have been designing and fitting bathrooms to make bathing or showering easier, for many years.

We offer a variety of solutions such as low to level shower access, walk in baths, custom built cubicle doors with toilets, along with our power assisted baths with rising seats.

We understand that purchasing the right product for your needs can be stressful. Many companies use commission only sales people, who must sell on the night and make promises they cannot fulfil to get your order.

At The Bathroom and Kitchen Studio our own staff can arrange a visit to your home or you can visit our showroom and have an informal chat. Should you wish we can then arrange a home visit.

If you feel more comfortable, please invite a friend or family member to be with you when you speak to us at the showroom or at your home. Very often two brains are better than one.

Feel free to come and visit us. We are located at 77, Bicester Road, Kidlington, Oxfordshire OX5 2LD.

Oakcraft Traditional Oak Buildings

OAKCRAFT at Holmsley Mill are experts at creating traditional oak frame buildings.

We specialise in modular and bespoke designed oak framed structures ranging, from simple garaging and garden rooms to complex bespoke projects. We also design, craft and assemble oak frame buildings nationally and internationally. Along with our own oak designs, we have patented their own jointing system, which is not only stronger than traditional jointing techniques, but offers space saving advantages when designing upper-floored buildings.

One thing about Oakcraft is that we are very happy to assist with your project from conception to completion. We will offer a planning application service and design facilities in the comfort of your own home or at our Principal Office.

When agreeing to use Oakcraft, there will be a number of procedures to follow.

• Always arrange an informal meeting with the planners to expose any potential problems, prior to submission.

• Traditional Oak framed buildings are often welcomed as planners understand that you are taking care and thought over your project.

• Green Oak framing is a specialist form of construction. Ensure that you employ a reputable company with a proven track record.

• As always when comparing quotations from companies, ask for the specification. Check sectional sizes of structural timbers and the specification of any doors and windows.

• Ensure your structural calculations are prepared to the new wind code BS 6399. This takes into account the altitude of your building as well as the locality. Required sectional sizes can vary greatly within the same village.

Holmsley Mill is located near Burley in the heart of The New Forest. This is where the frame is crafted.

Come and visit us at Holmsley Mill, Lyndhurst Road, Holmsley, Burley, Hampshire, BH24 4HY.

Alternatively, you can visit our website www.oakcraft.co.uk or ring us on 01425 402 507 for any enquiries.

The Furnishing Centre, Witney

MEET the family owned business with over 50 years of homemaking in Witney.

Started in 1963, The Furnishing Centre has steadily grown to be one of Oxfordshire's best-known respected furniture stores.

Being a family ran business; we pride ourselves on providing a personal and professional service, based in Witney's High Street.

As an independent retailer, we stock the country's leading furniture makers at the most competitive prices.

Makers such as G-Plan, Parker Knoll, Cintique, Vale, Bridgecraft, Sherborne, Relyon, and Hypnos are all on display, along with many of our independent manufacturing partners.

Since our existence, we've made it a priority to source the finest products that help to enhance the room space of our valued customers.

There's something about The Furnishing Centre that you'll never fine at characterless retail parks or faceless chain stores. We've always provided an attentive customer focused service that isn't built around sales figures and meeting targets. We prefer to treat our costumers as our friends with a genuine face-to-face service delivered with a smile.

We were pleased to take part in Witney's pink promotion day last weekend to support Breast Cancer Awareness, where we were fortunate to be placed third in the shop window display competition.

Call in to see us at our furniture shop in Witney where a warm and friendly welcome always awaits, we are open from 9am to 5pm, from Monday to Saturday.

You can locate us on 104 High Street Witney Oxon OX28 6HT.

Alternatively, you can ring us on 01993 702 369 or visit our website www.thefurnishingcentre.co.uk.

Homes, Gardens & Interiors

Decorus of Witney

WITH the autumn and winter months fast approaching, every homeowner across the land would want their house to feel like a home. Of course, the fireplace or central heating will physically make you warm, but, the color of your walls, the lamps, the ornaments and so one, will make you emotionally warm about what the interior of your house looks like. So, to help you with your interior enquires are Decorus.

Ran by Pam Viner, Decorus are based in Witney and have everything to help you with your interior enquires. The west Oxfordshire based business have got items such as mirrors, furniture, wall decorations and, if you were to visit their website (www.decor-us.co.uk), they have a 'What's New' page. This is where they show all of the products that you would love to have in your home and they range from lamps, all the way to ornaments.

The one thing, which is fantastic about Decorus, is the access you can get via Google. As we all know, if you're unsure of which directions to take when going to a new destination, or you can to look at a place that you haven't visited before, Google Maps is the place to go.

However, Pam has thought of a brilliant idea to help you, the homeowners, the wonderful costumers, what it will be like to enter her shop, by not putting a single foot their her front door.

By using Google POI (Places of Interest), you can tour all over Decorus to see what products are on sale. You can visit the back of the shop, the window sales, the products by the till, you can see everything!

If you would like to found out some more information about any of Decorus' products, please visit www.decor-us.co.uk or ring 01993 773 734.

Welcome to Ford Logs

FORD logs are a leading producer of quality dry firewood based in Southern Oxfordshire and despite being a small company, we're a friendly company that are here to help you.

We specialise in producing quality dry Beech and Ash logs for woodburners, open fires and fire pits and despite being based in South Oxfordshire, we deliver all over Oxfordshire, Berkshire and Wiltshere.

Unlike our competitors, we do not use other mixed hardwoods and to give the consumer peace of mind that a quality product will be received, all of our logs are inspected before being loaded onto our vehicles.

Our firewood is UK sourced (ideally within a 40 mile radius of our yard) from local estates, Parklands, Managed Forests, local arborists and our own tree surgery business, with all of our wood being well seasoned and barn stored.

Beech and Ash produce greater BTU's therefore generating a longer burn, generating a greater heat source and saving you money.

Quality control is taken seriously within Fordlogs, knowing that the wood you receive is at its optimum and ready to burn.

All of our wood is constantly monitored with moisture reading devices, with no wood leaving the yard above 22% moisture content (unless specified).

All of our logs are delivered loosely and not off loaded 'Roadside'. We can tip very close to where the logs are to be stacked.

We also offer a professional Stacking service if required at very competitive rate.

Simply fill in the contact form via our website with your enquiry, or alternatively call us to discuss your individual requirements.

We specialize and offer quality well seasoned Beech and Ash logs that won't disappoint you.

Primarily as a landscaping company, we can guarantee a quality product, as we don't rely on logs as our main source of income.

We also offer quality low m/c Kindling, which is neatly packed in small bags (for ease in starting fires). We offer a complete stacking service starting from £10.00.

For more information you can visit www.fordlogs.co.uk or contact us on 07880 690 925, 01367 718 551 and at logs@fordlogs.co.uk.

In addition with that, you can visit our sister site for all your landscaping, design and grounds management requirements. Visit www.fordlandscaping.co.uk

Citroën C4 Cactus Airflow 2L

REVIEW: Citroën C4 Cactus Airflow 2L

By James Richings

WITH a comparable design to the Citroën Xsara and mechanically similar to the Peugeot 308, the Citroën C4models have had a fair amount of success since its introduction 10 years ago.

The first generation of the C4 finished in second place at the 2005 European Car of the Year Award with the Citroën C4 Picasso finishing third in the same competition two years later.

The vehicle has also sold over one million units worldwide since 2009.

So to add to the C4 club, the French manufacturer has announced the brand new Citroën C4 Cactus AIRFLOW 2L available to buy.

The C4 Cactus AIRFLOW 2L project was undertaken as part of the "2l/100 km vehicle" programme set up by the Plateforme de la Filière Automobile industry group in France.

The objective is to reduce the impact of vehicle running costs on household expenditure and to reduce the eco-footprint of car travel.

The Citroën C4 Cactus already boasts a range of features designed to reduce fuel consumption with its smooth design, efficient engine and technologies selected to reduce vehicle weight.

The production C4 Cactus is 200kg lighter than the Citroën C4 hatchback, and the C4 Cactus AIRFLOW 2L concept shaves off another100kg cutting the weight of the concept by 11 per cent compared with the production car.

The production C4 Cactus ranks among the best in its segment with CO_2 emissions from 82g/km and fuel consumption starting at just 91.1mpg.

And the C4 Cactus AIRFLOW 2L goes further by adopting a Hybrid Air drivetrain - the technology presented by the PSA Peugeot Citroën Group in January 2013, and featured on a Citroën C3 at the 2013 Geneva Motor Show.

This includes a three-cylinder PureTech petrol engine, a compressed air energy storage unit, a hydraulic pump/motor unit and an automatic transmission with an epicyclic gear train.

An electronic management system manages input from the driver to optimise energy efficiency.

The latest C4 Cactus Airflow 2L costs from £12,900.

• C4 Cactus AIRFLOW

The official launch is on Saturday 25 October and Sunday 26 October.

SCANIA

Scania Abingdon - Not just for truckers...

YOU could be forgiven for assuming Scania are all about large trucks and giant exhaust systems. Scania Abingdon have made this reputable brand and garage services accessible to all with Andy Ledbury the Branch Controller leading the team with a totally forward thinking approach. As a woman, taking my car for repairs to a garage associated with trucks would usually be a reason to look elsewhere, but the Abingdon branch is very female friendly with full reception facilities and an adjacent waiting area kitted out with a PC and Tablet PC with internet service for those who need to keep on working while waiting for their car.

Also inside the waiting area is a large TV screen, which allows you to watch your car being worked upon, so you can see what is happening every step of the way.

Scania also offer fixed price repairs, so the price you see is the price you pay. It couldn't be easier for those of us who don't find it convenient to get to a garage when you have a busy working life, so at Scania Abingdon, you can take your car in from as early as 7am right up until 9pm Monday - Friday or Saturday from 8am until 12 noon, so you have total flexibility.

The full range of services are available for cars and vans. MoT's are £38 and Services are from £99, or large van Services from £120.

Scania Abingdon carry out all repairs.

During the Summer months they can even make sure you keep your cool with a full air conditioning service from just £36.

The team at Scania Abingdon have a combined 110 years experience in vehicle repairs and servicing, so you can be sure you are in good hands.

Scania Abingdon are at; Unit 6-7 Eyston Way, Ashville Trading Estate, Abingdon, OX14 1TR. Tel: 01235 553596, you can also email them at: Abingdon.enquiries@scania.com

Recruitment Advertising Works In The Oxfordshire Guardian

"We have been completely overwhelmed by the fantastic response our recruitment advertisement in the Guardian Series received. We gave some draft text to the advertising department and within a few hours; a glorious half page advertisement proof was sent back to me! We will certainly be using the Oxfordshire Guardian series again in the future."

Welsh look to break duck against Begles

LONDON Welsh head coach Justin Burnell is desperate to give the home fans something to cheer about when the Exiles go against the Bordeaux Begles tonight.

After losing the opening six fixtures in the Aviva Premiership this season, Saturday's 28-18 defeat to Lyon in the European Rugby Challenge Cup made it seven straight defeats for Burnell's men.

And the Exiles boss says Welsh simply have to win in their second Challenge Cup fixture.

Burnell said: "We've got to get a win and that's what we'll be fighting for wholeheartedly to get - we have to get a win at home.

"They're an excellent team and they've picked up some fantastic results so far this season, but we're back at the Kassam Stadium."

On Saturday the Exiles were 21-3 down at the Matmut Stadium just 29 minutes after tries from Ricky Januarie and Franck Romanet, although the visitors recovered brilliantly to reduce the deficit to just three points before Seru Sukanaveita's crucial try.

Despite a seventh straight loss, Burnell was encouraged by his team's attitude.

He added: "There's been a lot of disappointment over the last couple of weeks, but the players come out in typical London Welsh spirit and rolled their sleeves up.

"We're a little bit disappointed with the first three tries we gave away, but then we clawed it back to 21-18 and I genuinely thought we could have won the game.

"Our set-piece was fantastic, it was so dominant.

"In 80 degree heat and in front of 8,500 home supporters baying for blood, we didn't crumble once.

"When people ask me how the mood in the camp is, I say 'it's good; they're up for the challenge and they're positive'. People must look at me a bit strange, but it's true.

"Of course we're disappointed, but it's a good place to be. The boys are dying for the cause.

"We've learnt a lot in the first six games in the Aviva Premiership and we've got to now progress on."

City beaten by Lowestoft and slip to fourth in league table

FIRST half goals from Jake Reed and Chris Henderson saw Oxford City go down to a 2-1 defeat at Lowestoft Town in Vanarama Conference North last Saturday.

The defeat leaves Justin Merritt's side fourth in the table but they are now seven points behind league leaders AFC Fylde.

City started well against Lowestoft with Kynan Isaac heading home Paul Stonehouse's cross on 15 minutes.

And Merritt's side could have made it 2-0 but Alejandro-Adrian Santiago was brilliantly denied before Darren Mullings headed wide.

However, Lowestoft found a way back into the game on 34 minutes as Reed fired past debutant Nathan Abbey in the City goal.

And the hosts ended the first half in the lead as Henderson made it 2-1 on 44 minutes.

Abbey kept City in the game in the second half as Lowestoft emerged from the break the better side and the game was put beyond them on 74 minutes as Santiago was sent off.

City will be looking to put an end to their current two-match winless run when they welcome Hednesford Town to Marsh Lane on Saturday.

Ferguson optimistic as Exiles welcome Bordeaux

LONDON Welsh assistant coach Matt Ferguson is in an upbeat mood ahead of tonight's European Rugby Challenge Cup tie against Bordeaux Begles at the Kassam Stadium.

The Exiles were beaten 28-18 by Lyon in their first game in Pool 4 on Saturday, but it was a much improved performance in comparison to recent weeks.

Welsh are on a seven-match winless run in all competitions, including six defeats to start their Aviva Premiership campaign.

But Ferguson, who admits Welsh haven't delivered a complete performance yet this season, believes a win is not far away.

He said: "From what I have seen in the last couple of weeks I think we could be pretty close tonight.

"What is happening now is people are becoming more in tune with the pace and the physicality that we need.

"If you look at our European pool, Lyon was a premiership standard fixture so there is still loads to work on.

"But it is pleasing that we did make a few changes and those boys just slotted into the system."

Hylton delighted to win over United's fans

HOT-SHOT Danny Hylton says he is happy to have won over Oxford United's fans after his quick-fire brace helped the U's to a 3-1 win over Northampton Town on Tuesday.

The 25-year-old forward, who is now joint top scorer in Sky Bet League Two with eight goals, has netted 10 times in all competitions this season.

When he was brought in by former boss Gary Waddock in the summer many U's supporters compared Hylton to the outgoing James Constable, whose 106 goals for the club saw him become a fans' favourite.

However, it has taken Hylton little time to make an impact at the Kassam Stadium.

"I'm delighted to have got 10 goals so soon and I will just keep trying to work hard for the team," he said.

"If I keep getting goal scoring opportunities then I will keep trying to take them."

Hylton added: "I'm very happy to have won the fans over.

"Constable was here before and I got reminded about it everyday when I signed.

"He did great for the club but I'm someone totally different.

"I'm just delighted to have come in and shown what I can do and I'll keep trying to do that."

United recorded their first away win of the season with victory over Northampton.

By Jack Johnson
jack@taylornewspapers.co.uk

It didn't start well for Michael Appleton's side as Enda Stevens put the Cobblers ahead on four minutes.

However, United rallied and Hylton headed home Danny Rose's cross on 25 minutes before putting Oxford in front from the penalty spot just moments later.

And Alfie Potter's deflected cross eluded the stranded Jordan Archer on 50 minutes to give United a 3-1 lead and the win.

Head coach Appleton was delighted with the win which came despite five of his players suffering with sickness before and during the game.

"Four of five of them were being sick at half-time so that was a bit of a concern," he said.

"Andy Whing was actually being sick before the game so to go through the match as he did was fantastic."

United go to Carlisle United on Saturday hoping for a third successive win.

Stars suffer double defeat to stay bottom of the pile

OXFORD City Stars remain rock bottom of the National Ice Hockey League South 1 after suffering their fifth and sixth consecutive defeats to Chelmsford Chieftains and Milton Keynes Thunder last weekend.

The visitors lost 7-4 at high-flying Chelmsford despite Darren Elliott's scrappy opener giving Stars a surprise lead.

However, Chelmsford quickly turned the tables to lead the match 2-1 before Elliott struck again to equalise at 2-2.

Joe Oliver then scored in the second period to bring the score back to 3-3, only for the Chieftains to snatch a 4-3 advantage at the end of the second session.

Chelmsford scored two goals in quick succession, either side of Joe Edwards' reply to see Oxford trail 5-4 before another two fine strikes in the third period wrapped up the hosts fifth victory from six league matches.

Stars then agonisingly lost 5-4 to Milton Keynes on Sunday despite a remarkable comeback after trailing the visitors 3-1 at the end of the first period.

Joe Edwards' goal was in vain in the opening session as Thunder netted three times, only for Michal Tomasik to score twice in the space of 90 seconds on his Stars debut to level the game at 3-3.

James Pentecost then gave Oxford a stunning 4-3 lead, with Milton Keynes levelling moments before the end of the second period.

Jamie Line scored the away side's match winner just 10 minutes from the end, inflicting an eighth defeat in nine games on Oxford.

Stars play Chelmsford again on Saturday in Oxford before travelling to leaders Streatham Redkskins on Sunday.

Smith delighted with first podium

MOTOGP rider Bradley Smith said it was "amazing" to clinch his maiden podium at the Australian Grand Prix last Sunday.

The 23-year-old from Oxford finished third behind Yamaha Factory duo Valentino Rossi and Jorge Lorenzo at Phillip Island.

Smith, who qualified fourth, slipped back to eighth in the opening laps but worked his way up to fourth with the finish line looming closer.

The Oxford-born rider continued to put in fast times and to close the gap to third-place when his former teammate Cal Crutchlow crashed on the last lap to gift Smith a well-deserved podium.

He said: "It's a bit unexpected to be on the podium but after having great pace all weekend, it is the dream way to complete all of the good work we have done recently.

"I passed the chequered flag and saw the team on the wall, so I thought that I was in 4th or 5th, but then I saw my name in 3rd on the board as I came around the corner, which was an amazing feeling."

Smith is now eighth in the rider standings with 108 points and is now only nine points behind sixth placed Aleix Espargaro.

He added: "Now we have closed the gap in the championship to 6th quite considerably, so we need to focus on this for the next two races."

The next round is in Sepang, Malaysia, this weekend.

Hawks make it seven wins in a row with Clifton victory

HENLEY Hawks continued their sensational start to the National League 2 South after making it seven consecutive wins with a 20-7 victory at Clifton on Saturday.

The league leaders are five points clear of second-placed Taunton Titans who edged Redruth 24-17.

Connor Murphy opened the scoring for Hawks when he ripped through Clifton's defence after 14 minutes to touch down under the posts.

Will Robinson easily scored the point blank conversion before Dave Manning slid home Hawks' second try of the afternoon just seven minutes later to give the visitors a commanding 14-0 lead at the interval.

Clifton brought it back to 14-7 early in the second-half after Lucas Slovik's consolation try, but Robinson converted two penalty kicks shortly after to preserve Hawks' 100 per cent record this term.

Early title contenders Henley welcome fourth-placed Old Elthamians to Dry Leas on Saturday.

Elsewhere, Oxford Harlequins slipped to ninth in the National League 3 South West Division after suffering a narrow 25-20 defeat to Old Centralians.

Quins trailed 25-10 before encouraging tries from Jonathan Miller and Ed Yeats nearly completed a remarkable comeback.

And finally, Grove slipped to tenth in the South West 1 East Division after a 22-12 away defeat to league leaders Chippenham.

Tries from Brendon White and Steve Dixey were in vain as the hosts made it seven straight victories this season. Grove host fellow strugglers Devizes this Saturday.

Kidington hit Thatcham for six in Hellenic encounter

KIDLINGTON thrashed Thatcham Town 6-1 on Tuesday night to continue their impressive start in the Hellenic Premier Division.

Martin Wilkinson's men sit third in the division having taken 30 points from 14 games and are eight points behind leaders Highmoor Ibis.

The win saw Kidlington bounce back from a 3-2 defeat to Lydney Town in the first round of the Bluefin Sport Challenge Cup last Saturday.

Kidlington will be looking to maintain their league form when they host second from bottom Shrivenham on Saturday.

Elsewhere, Thame United beat Newbury 4-0 last Saturday and are currently sixth in the Hellenic Premier Division with 23 points.

BOSS PRAISES DIDDY SPIRIT

Railwaymen win "ugly" to book place in next round of FA Trophy

By Jack Johnson
jack@taylornewspapers.co.uk

DIDCOT Town joint manager Ian Concannon praised his side's character after a 3-1 win over Marlow last Saturday booked their place in the next round of the FA Trophy.

John Mills (2) and Adam Learoyd scored for the Railwaymen to set up a first qualifying round tie at Bideford AFC on November 1.

However, it was not the most accomplished performance with Concannon admitting his side looked tired from the penalty shoot-out defeat against North Leigh four days earlier.

Diddy's joint boss described the win over Marlow as "ugly" but said the most important thing was to advance to the next round.

Concannon added: "We worked hard but we weren't quite our fluent self.

"It was a bit scrappy at times but it was a cup game and it was important that we won.

"Maybe when we took over we might not have been able to achieve that but there has been a couple of times this year when we have not been at our best and got a good result."

He continued: "It shows character but we want to play well every week, people want to come and watch good football.

"But sometimes you are going to win a lot of games ugly by not playing well and that is a sign of a good team."

Didcot will look to stretch their unbeaten run in Division One South & West to nine games when they make the trip to Bridgwater Town on Saturday.

Midfielder Andy Ballard, who joined Diddy last week from Chesham and made his debut against Marlow, is set to start and Concannon is delighted to sign the former Oxford City captain.

He said: "We put in an approach and spoke to him and he didn't have any hesitation in wanting to join us.

"For a few years we have lacked somebody in the middle of the park who can be aggressive and win his tackles and do the horrible stuff.

"He has got lots of ability and good aspects to his game."

Concannon added: "He does give us an aggression - he is a bit of a terrier in there."
